EVERYONE MUST FIGHT AGAINST THE SPANISH 'FLU

It seems hard to realize that the 'Flu is the menace that it is purported to be, yet a person has only to pick up an eastern paper to recognize how serious an epidemic it has become. In the face of these circumstances the public should be only too willing to comply with the precautionary measures advised by the medical health officer.

The schools, the church, the lodge meetings and all public assemblies have been called off and the pool rooms have also been closed for the time being. Several more cases of a mild type have broken out in town, among these being W. H. Smith, Geo. Frownfelter, Parker Crum and T. A. Kennedy, while there are innumerable cases reported from the surrounding country.

Influenza, which is now sweeping over Canada from one end to the other, is a very old disease. It was known in ancient times, and as early as 1510 it overran the whole civilized world. For centuries it has periodically swept over various parts of the world. The last great world epidemic was in 1889-1890 when it was generally known by the French name la grippe. The disease has always travelled from east to west.

The symptoms are similar to those of a heavy cold; more or less severe headache, cold in the head and throat, fits of sneezing, flushed face, chills, aches and pains in the back and limbs, pains in the eye-balls and behind the eyes, general physical depression, and temperature rising to between 101 and 104 degrees.

As it is such an old disease, doctors have naturally learned a great deal about its prevention and treatment. The first principle of prevention is to keep away from those infected, and the second, to build up the germ-resisting parts of the body by eating nourishing foods, dressing comfortably, getting lots of sleep, and by living in the open air and in bright, well-ventilated rooms as much as possible. The mouth, throat and nose should be systematically and frequently disinfected by antiseptic inhalations, sprays and washes. Such preparations as chlorotone and listerine are well adapted for this purpose.

In fighting previous epidemics, doctors found quinine a useful preventive. One grain of sulphate of quinine mixed with (but not dissolved in) a wineglassful of cold water makes an excellent antiseptic gargle. The anti-microbial properties of quinine are well known and its use as described above at once relieves the symptoms of sore throat, which result from the strain of the fight between the white blood corpuscles and the invading germs in the tonsils—the body's first line of defence. Quinine is also given internally with success as a preventive. In one of the more recent outbreaks in Europe, an experiment was tried in which the men of one squadron of a regiment of cavalry were each given $\frac{7}{8}$ grains of quinine in $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce of whiskey daily for 22 days, whilst those of the other two squadrons were given none. The latter squadrons had from 22 to 44 cases each of influenza, whilst the squadron treated with quinine developed only 4 cases. Inhalations of oil of eucalyptus, thymol, oil of mountain pine and the like are also valuable preventives.

When a person is struck by influenza only one course lies open. That is to take to bed with the least possible delay and call a doctor. Rest, warmth and quiet are three sovereign remedies of the primary disease, and the best preventive of its more deadly complications, of which pneumonia is the most frequent. While there is no specific for influenza, yet there are many drugs which play a useful part in relieving it, such as quinine, aspirin and various tonics, anti-neuralgic, antiseptic and heart medicines, to be prescribed by the physician in charge.

The dietetic rules which apply to any fever apply equally to influenza. Liquid foods at first, solids a little later on in a gradually ascending scale from lightly boiled fresh eggs to chickens, roast joints, etc. Water, cold or hot, may be sipped or "egg water" may be given. This excellent dish is prepared by blending with a pint of cold water, the whipped whites of from 2 to 4 eggs flavored with salt or cinnamon. Then the animal broths may be given. There are many cases in which even the lightest foods are spurned with loathing and common sense must be used in adapting diet to the particular case in hand.

The sick should be separated from the healthy. This is especially important in the case of first attacks in the household.

Discharges from the nose and mouth should not be allowed to get dry on a pocket handkerchief or inside the house, office or factory. They should at once be collected in paper or clean rags and burned. If this cannot be done, they should be dropped into a vessel containing water.

Those attacked should not on any account mingle with other people for at least a period of ten days from the commencement of the attack.

TRAVERS NOTES

The Travers Red Cross Society has abandoned meetings for the present. Notice later of a general meeting to be held in the basement of the church. Anyone willing to take sewing home kindly call upon Mrs. Suffer, superintendent of supplies. The annual report and new officers elected will appear in a later edition.

J. M. Murphy is auctioning off his restaurant equipment on the 28th., and it is reported as opening up a grocery store.

LOCALETS

The Retlaw police apprehended a Mr. Bowden, a farmer living between Lomond and Travers, last Friday and took him to Lethbridge, the charge it is alleged being securing funds under false pretences.

Albert M. Armstrong, local agent for the United Grain Growers, Ltd., and Miss Anna D. Towers, of Vulcan, were quietly married at Calgary last week, Rev. Hillocks performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong have taken up housekeeping in the Stark residence. Congratulations are extended by their numerous friends and acquaintances.

Wm. Honess and Miss Verda Knapp of Midway were married in Lethbridge on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Honess are expected home to-day and the raiding party is all loaded and ready. Mr. Honess has built a fine little cottage on his farm this summer in anticipation of this interesting event.

Monday opens the big Victory Loan drive—not much can be expected from here this year, a fifty here and a hundred there will make quite a pile when all totalled up. Do your bit!

J. R. Renton, representing the J. & J. Taylor safe works, was in Lomond on Tuesday. Mr. Renton is a brother-in-law to H. W. Burne of Lomond. He is a returned veteran, being gassed at the Vimy front.

W. A. Teskey has purchased the tools and equipment of the Lomond Auto Repair Company from Ford Cotton and is amalgamating the business with his own garage. This additional equipment will place the Ford Garage in a position to handle with dispatch the repair work on all makes of automobiles.

Money may be the root of all evil, but is not credited as the basis of the scrap in town on Wednesday by the gallantry from across the valley.

Stewart Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ward of Eyremore, left to rejoin the Strathcona Horse in Calgary last week, after a couple of months harvest leave.

G. D. Salter is keeping open the Frank Brown Co. store while Mr. Brown is laid up with the 'flu.

Lomond experienced the novelty of having two locomotives in town at the same time on Wednesday morning. While switching during the night the regular engine was de-railed, making it necessary to call for assistance from Medicine Hat, which arrived in time to let the train away around nine o'clock.

On Sunday next, the 27th., everyone should set their clocks back to the old standard time as we have saved about all the available daylight in 1918.

Mrs. Ambler, who had been here for a couple of months taking care of her daughter, Mrs. A. Parker, during her severe illness, left for her home at Wetasewin last Friday, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Saunders as far as Okotoks.

F. A. Stephens, of Badger Lake, will leave in the morning for Niagara Falls to spend the winter.

F. M. Cotton expects to sign up with the flying corps mechanical section, using to good advantage his gas engine training.

A. W. Tulloch was in Lethbridge over Sunday, where Mrs. Tulloch is making rapid progress toward recovery after her recent operation.

The following extract from the London (England) Gazette of July 23rd., 1918, is in reference to a brother of G. V. Couper of Lomond.

"MILITARY CROSS.—Captain Thomas James Couper, R.G.A., for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. When his battery had been ordered to withdraw he remained behind with one section while the other two sections withdrew, and kept his guns in action until all ammunition had been expended. The battery position and road of retreat were being heavily shelled, but by his cool-headedness and good example he kept up the spirits of his men and brought out the last section safely."

The Rebekahs have decided to postpone all their assemblies until the air is considered clear by the medical health officer.

Perhaps you will require a new heater, or maybe only a few lengths of pipe and some weather strip. Whatever it may be you will do well to look after it now.

NOTES

While the need of a hospital is only too apparent, it is also evident that the public does not appreciate the fact to a sufficient extent to provide the same through the medium of voluntary contributions. There are two important factors working against the voluntary system this year. The first, and perhaps the most important, is the general lack of funds throughout the country—people cannot contribute what they have not got. Second, the public has not been educated up to the idea and of course was suspicious that somebody might be in for a rake-off.

To anyone who has ever observed the operation of a public hospital, it is a well-known fact that they are a bill of expense instead of a money-making institution. But, as they are for the public benefit it is just and proper that the general public should be forced to shoulder the burden—like the schools, for instance.

The Hospital Act provides the only proper medium, for by it an organization is given a semblance of permanency and stability with an executive body responsible to the ratepayers. The territory assessable is necessarily large so the levy would be but a bare trifle.

THE PRESS has a copy of the new act and finds no clause in the same that would shut off this district from organization providing the people so desired.

o o o

The German peace proposals detrimentally affected the flotation of the United States Liberty Loan by creating an attitude of confusion in the public mind. Canadians should beware of this. The war is not won till a military victory is attained, and this, while apparent, calls for a lot more fighting.

o o o

Whether the whiskey was good or bad, we are not prepared to say, but that there was plenty of it was very apparent during the Thanksgiving week. We sometimes wonder if there is any protection to be expected from the provincial authorities.

Why Canada must borrow money to carry on

Because Canada has put her hand to the plow and will not turn back:—

—our country is in the war on the side of liberty and justice and will stay in it till complete victory is won and the unspeakable Hun is smashed and beaten to the ground;

—a nation at war must make tremendous expenditures in cash to keep up her armies and supply them with munitions, food and clothing;

—Canada must finance many millions of dollars of export trade in food, munitions and supplies which Britain and our allies must have on credit;

—for these purposes Canada must borrow hundreds of millions of dollars—

And, this money must be borrowed from the people of Canada:—

Therefore, Canada will presently come to her people for a new Victory Loan to carry on.

Canadians will loan the money by again buying Victory Bonds.

The national safety, the national honor and the national well-being require that each and every Canadian shall do his duty by lending to the nation every cent he can spare for this purpose.

Be ready when the call comes to see your country through in its great war work

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada

Take This 15 to 25 Per Cent.

----it's what we saved you on our advanced buying. A year ago we anticipated the needs of this district and, knowing the markets as we do, we determined to save ourselves and our customers against the 25 to 35 per cent. increase on this year's goods.

Winter goods of real quality are about as plentiful as hens' teeth, and the prices have gone out of sight. But, in common with a very few other stores in this country, we have now got the goods at a fair price---- and the goods we still stand back of.

Penman's Sweater Coats

Heather mixture, with military collars, cotton and wool in medium weight, a good garment to wear under a smock, all sizes, at $2.75

Penman's Worsted Yarn Sweater

This is one of the best sweaters made by Penman's this year. The collars, cuffs and facings are pure wool, the body is 70 per cent. wool and the yarn twisted hard so as to give the wear. Extra value, bought on last year's market, all sizes, at $5.50

Other lines of cotton and wool and wool mixtures, at from $1.75 to $5.00

Many lines of pure wool sweaters at from $6.50 up.

Winter Underwear, our own brand

Heavy elastic ribbed, a good warm garment, very durable and unshrinkable, mostly wool, a little cotton, all sizes, per garment $2.00

Heavy Cord Pants for Men

This is the only corduroy pant we have ever handled to any extent without having trouble. There are very few real good corduroys on the market and this one is the daddy of them all. We have yet to hear one complaint on this line and we have sold in Lomond 112 pairs inside a year. Price $6.00

Men's Wool Pants---Hewson Tweeds.

Pure Wool Sox, Gloves and Mitts.

Mackinaw Coats, the "Kozycoat" Brand, in a class by themselves.

Count Three Before You Speak

On the basis of an unsubstantiated assertion it appears that E. G. Haley has been made the victim of a charge of stealing a steer belonging to Mr. Flaradau at Bow City. Mr. Flaradau tells Mr. Haley that Mr. Holo was the party responsible for the report, while Mr. Holo vindicates himself through the signed statement published below. It appears to be the outcome of a very dangerous attitude all too generally assumed whereby one will attach a grievous injury onto another through the flimsiest of circumstantial evidence or hearsay.

I hereby certify that I never saw the cattle shipped from the Lomond station on or about Oct. 8th., 1918, by E. G. Haley. I further state that I saw his herd of cattle but did not recognize other parties' cattle among Haley's herd.

NOTES

The Vulcan Advocate publishes a cut of H. H. Halladay as the man who interested himself in behalf of Lomond re the train service. Queer, isn't it, and THE PRESS was not even provided with a cut. Just the same, we believe Mr. Halladay gave Lomond good service in the train negotiations.

o o o

Strange that the War Board should have been so solicitous regarding the fuel situation, when it now takes till ten and twelve o'clock to handle the traffic with two trains a week.

The 'shiver-ee' party on Saturday night, being anxious to divide the spoils, of course made a raid on Jang's. Not being accustomed to our 'civilized' way of celebrating these joyous events, became suspicious and immediately locked the doors. Then the 'shiver-ee' was started again around the chop-suey joint. Authentic reports place Maggie in the water barrel with the lid down tight, Lin in an upstairs window scattering the crowd from the range of his old musket, and Jang frantically rushing around in his pink pyjamas with a tea-kettle full of boiling water ready and willing to deal out misery to the first gink to venture too close. All at once could be heard the sound of reinforcements and there, standing silhouetted above the heights of Railway avenue was the Lone Prospector drawing a steady bead with a 30-30 on the upper north-west window of the restaurant. The raiding party finally withdrew without casualties.

Arranging to Provide Seed Grain

It will be necessary for a good many to seek government aid to secure seed for 1919. To this end arrangements have already been completed. A settler needing assistance must apply to the secretary-treasurer of the municipality in which he resides, or, if the district be un-organized, to the provincial officer of the department of municipal affairs, Edmonton. The application having been verified by both municipal and dominion authorities, the bank makes the necessary loan, taking the usual seed grain security and a lien upon the unpatented entry. Payments are due on January 1, 1920. As a result of the policy established the settler can make his own arrangements in regard to the purchase of seed, although, if there is none available locally the department of agriculture is arranging for shipment to be sold to the farmers at cost. The government guarantees the bank to the extent of principal and 5 per cent. interest.

Elmer Jensen returned from Calgary this week, having obtained a further leave from service to carry on his agricultural activities.

Jens Sokvitne has about completed the contract work on the Adler school just north of Kinnondale.

Turkey has quit the war, and the news did not even bring forth a flare head line.

The rapidity with which the 'flu was taking hold of the unprotected manhood around the town made it advisable to procure improvised hospital accommodation for the numerous cases. In consequence M.H.O. Walkey and Reeve Teskey took over the Farrell residence and equipped the same sufficiently to receive the afflicted. The school staff volunteered to take charge of the hospital and the boys are as snug as bugs in a rug.

Quite a number more cases have been reported, among them being F. L. Willard, Jas. Mapson, L. M. Swain, G. D. Salter, Jas. Southern, Gus the Barber, Ira Donily, Duke Armstrong, Mrs. St. John, Miss Enders, L. H. Phillips, Allan Phillips, Bill Cox and L. E. Tibbitts.

Several cases in the country have developed into pneumonia but none so far have taken a serious turn.

Frank Brown and W. H. Smith are now released from quarantine.

Very few business houses remain open, even the bank being closed.

The provincial board of health has decreed that every one shall wear a mask, and the order is being about as well obeyed as the average run of our Canadian laws.

Local gasoline dealers are balking at the fuel controller's newest regulations. It appears that the margin of profit is regulated to ten per cent on the invoice price, which in itself would be considered quite satisfactory, only, the dealer buys the gas by weight and sells it by measure and it does not measure out according to the scale used in computing the gallons by weight. If this is the true state of affairs there is a good opening for the control of gasoline weighing.

A. E. Olmstead is up from Michigan this week rounding up some of his business affairs. Mr. Olmstead says that everything across the line is 'war' and that we in Canada have no conception of war-time restrictions, compared to our neighbors in the south.

There are things fully as dangerous as the 'flu. For instance, that broken culvert a mile north of town.

R. R. Saunders has gone to Castor to help out a brother druggist stricken with the 'flu.

Soldiers from Sarcee whose leave expired yesterday, have been notified not to report till Nov. 15, owing to the 'flu epidemic. Stewart Ward is reported to be very ill at camp quarters.

The Victory Loan canvas locally has been purposely delayed on account of the epidemic, but it is expected to thoroughly canvas the district before closing day, Nov. 16th.

NOTES

The Victory Bond has been the inauguration of thrift to thousands of people in all parts of the Dominion. The idea of creating a margin between the receipts and expenditures is a thing new to a great many people. The idea inculcated is in itself of as great a commercial value as the bonds. The man who by thrift prepares a stake for the future not only ensures to himself a good deal of happiness but also releases the state from the liability of his protection in old age.

W. J. Christie, writing in the Winnipeg Telegram, brings up a question that should be given the serious consideration of the Western Canada farmer particularly, not to mention the government at Ottawa and the Grain Commission. The point in question is "what right have the grain companies to the 'overage' accumulated through excessive dockage?" This overage is reputed to amount to from one to three million bushels yearly. Granted that it is but a small percentage, it does not justify the buying corporations from pocketing annually this easy pickin's from the grain growing farmer.

Since governments are constantly searching for new sources of revenue, let them confiscate these amounts.

A story is told concerning a certain elevator company which sent out sleuths to apprehend any of their agents who might be crooked. At one point it was found that grain tickets were being issued by the agent to a purely fictitious party. These cash tickets amounted to quite a considerable figure at that. So, the agent was "hooked," tried and convicted—disgraced. Yet the elevator checked and shipped out more bushels than the books showed that had been bought and paid for by the company, even allowing for the amount in the fictitious cash tickets. In such cases as these we fail to conceive which is guilty of the greater felony, a company accepting without equivocation the overage for which it does not pay, or the occasional elevator agent who is caught doing the same thing.

Again we assert that if the farmer was as enthusiastic in looking after his own welfare as he is in cussing the other fellow for not doing it for him, he would not now be supporting the millionaire incubators, commonly known as the grain exchanges.

War Efficiency and National Prosperity

More than a billion and a half dollars distributed in Canada for exported agricultural produce and the products of labor in the fiscal year ending March 31, 1918, has kept Canada busy and prosperous in spite of the war.

CANADA'S production in such enormous quantities was made possible only by the money received through Canada's War Loans. Canada thus was enabled to assist the Allies in their purchases here by establishing financial credits for their use in this country.

CANADA'S war loans not only have sustained Canada's war effort, but they have kept the wheels of production turning as they never turned before.

This is the flood of cash which poured in to Canada's farms for their exports in the fiscal year 1918, for:—

Butter.....	$ 2,000,000
Cheese.....	36,602,000
Eggs.....	2,271,000
Oats.....	37,644,000
Wheat.....	366,341,000
Flour.....	95,896,000
Meats.....	76,729,000
Vegetables.....	19,034,000

Over six hundred and thirty-six million dollars for exported farm products alone!

AND the workers of Canada also shared greatly in Canada's export trade.

For their products there was distributed in Canada, during the year:

Munitions.....	$450,000,000
Metals.....	92,083,000
Vehicles.....	22,776,000
Wood Pulp and Paper..	59,599,000

These huge sums were spent in Canada by the Allies.

Canada's own war expenditure for the fiscal year 1918 was $342,762,000.

And the bulk of all these expenditures, the foundation of Canada's prosperity and war effectiveness, was made possible only because the subscribers to Canada's war loans furnished the working capital.

CANADA must keep this great work going—must produce as never before; must work, fight, save and lend as she has never yet done to bring victory and a lasting peace to a war-ridden world.

But Canada to-day (thanks to her great export trade), is in a better position now than ever, to carry on.

The Victory Loan 1918 will keep Canada busy, will enable her to maintain her great export business; and it will make Canada more efficient than ever, because her prosperity will not be diminished and her determination to work, fight and win will be stronger than it has ever been before.

Custom Tailoring Dept.

Shop of "Fashion-Craft"

Many men are not aware of the existence of such a department in our store; although we are, through this department, affiliated with one of the largest and finest custom-tailoring houses in the world.

We do not think it necessary to-day to draw any comparisons with the product of the small, one-horse tailor, as any man must admit that an aggregation of experts, surrounded by every facility, will produce garments beyond the hope of any individual mechanic, regardless of the attention he might give to the production of each garment.

The expert designer, the expert cutter, the numerous expert mechanics working in harmony under ideal conditions in a shop that for twenty years has sought the best methods to improve a product, now offer "Fashion-Craft" custom-made clothes.

Price no Feature

The shop of "Fashion-Craft" makes no feature of price. The standard of workmanship and quality of cloths are reckoned with first. The intrinsic value is the basis of cost.

The fashion portfolio and several hundred cloth samples are open at our shop for your inspection. May we suggest that our own custom-tailoring experience and years of close observation on the workings and results of the various weaves may greatly assist you in securing an entirely satisfactory suit.

Prices on "Fashion-Craft" Made-to-Measure Clothes, $35.00 to $60.00 per Suit.

TRAVERS NOTES

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Sears was buried on Saturday, Oct. 26.

The provincial police of Retlaw was in town Tuesday to see that masks were being worn. They weren't then but they are now. Travers has been very free from the 'flu, but let us continue our precautions. No telling when we will be like most of the other towns. All public gatherings are called off.

Born, on Sunday, Oct. 27th., to Mr. and Mrs. H. Ulrich, a son.

Mr. Murphy was a Champion caller Friday.

Miss Foisia of Badger Lake has taken a position in the Standard Bank here. Miss Foster is leaving the bank this week.

The funeral services of Elva Taylor were held Friday, Oct. 25. Miss Taylor had been in poor health for some time. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Private Lowe of the 78th battery is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Lowe.

BADGER LAKE

H. Booth and A. Durand have taken most of their stock up to the Red Deer country for the winter.

E. G. Haley shipped a car of cattle from Lomond last Saturday.

D. A. Wilkinson was in Lethbridge this week.

The school is closed, of course, but no immediate cases are reported.

All signs point to more weddings in the near future.

LOMOND DISTRICT

Have you got the 'flu yet? If not, do you want it? Those living in the country appear to be more immune from it than those in town. Girls in particular are prone to disregard the law concerning the wearing of masks, but never mind if it covers up those rosy cheeks, or hides that cute little nose, with a tendency to make it a little puggy. The white may not show up those pretty blue eyes to advantage, but the law was made for your protection so be a friend to yourself.

Will Southern intends to work in the Bow City mines for the winter.

Mr. Maronda has decided that the moving of the Munro house involves too much work, so will move into it in a week or ten days if the epidemic subsides.

Will and Frank Newton are plastering the latter's house, owing to the scarcity of plasterers.

Some of the farmers are wisely laying in their winter's supply of spuds.

Jim Henderson has been lucky to find an abundance of water at ten feet. He managed to dig down seven feet farther and now the water question doesn't worry him any more.

Mr. Montgomery, formerly of this locality, has rented and moved onto the Smith half section two miles east of town. He is now discing up the land and will sow it to wheat in the spring.

The closing of the bank in town is inconveniencing the farmers to a great extent.

Former Wheat Centre Boy Weds

HORTON-SPROAT.—At Winnipeg on Sept. 27th., Miss M. J. A. (Babe), youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sproat of Egmondville, Ont., was united in marriage to Mr. W. A. Horton of Standard, Alta., the Rev. A. J. McKenzie performing the ceremony.
